Where Do Your Tax-Deductible Donations Go?

Theatre may look magical, but that magic is built on planning, people, and materials. While money alone doesn't guarantee excellence, insufficient funding forces compromises that directly affect quality, safety, and audience impact.

Not every production requires every item listed below, but your support helps cover the real costs of creating meaningful, high-quality theatre:

	Average Annual Cost
• Royalties & Licensing	$250 - $6,000
• Scripts	$200 - $3,000
• Theatre Rental	$1,500 - $4,000
• Rehearsal Space (2+ months, 3 rehearsals per week)	$500 - $2,000
• Production Expenses	$1,300 - $7,500
Set Construction & Set Décor (lumber, paint, hardware)
Lighting Equipment (mixing boards, bulbs, fixtures)
Special Effects (fog, projections, technical enhancements)
Props (realistic and safe to use)
Costumes (period accurate or custom-made)
Sound Equipment (mixing boards, microphones, speakers)
Choreographers (dance, stage combat)
• Advertising & Signage	$100 - $3000
(photography, social media promotion, flyers)
• Website Upkeep	$2,000
• Programs / Playbills	$500 - $1,300
• Concessions (intermission refreshments)	$50-1000
• Storage (props, costumes, set pieces)	$1,800
• Administrative costs	$0
(We are a company comprised 100% of volunteers and no one is paid a dime)
